Meghan Brady is a painter based in Camden and Rockland, Maine. Through painting, printmaking, and drawing-installations, Brady explores the possibilities of a wide-ranging practice. Recent shows include a solo presentation by Mrs. Gallery at NY Independent Art Fair, ‘Said + Done’ at Mrs. Gallery in NYC, ‘Reversible Roles’ at University of Maine Museum of Art, ‘Take Five’ at SUNY Buffalo Anderson Gallery, NADA House Governors Island NYC and ‘Second Hand’ at Space Gallery in Portland, Maine. She’s recently been in residence at MacDowell, Surf Point Foundation, Hewnoaks, Ellis Beauregard Foundation, and Tiger Strikes Asteroid NYC. Brady is a graduate of Smith College and Boston University. She is represented by Mrs. Gallery in NYC and also has prints available through Wingate Studio.